FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old order has passed away; now all is new. All this has been done by God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and has given us the ministry of reconciliation... he has entrusted the message of reconciliation to us... We implore you in Christ's name: be reconciled to God."

Our Lent is half over. Paul teaches us what God has done. Now it's our turn. I can take a step to forge forgiveness of others. Ask God's help to do so. But now is the time to be sure that Lent means something in 2025. See that the Sacrament of Reconciliation allows us to be one with Him. Use it as His expression of love for you today. As we approach Holy Week soon we are not just to remember Jesus' saving work, but respond. Make a good confession, He is still waiting. Be aware that He will one day ask us to make an accounting of our lives. Prepare your resume now.

3 Things Unemployed Professionals Must Know to Overcome Frustration and Fear

It's easy for unemployed professionals to become overwhelmed with feelings of frustration and fear. A period of unemployment or underemployment is one of the scariest and uncertain times people can go through in their lives. While those feelings are understandable, they are also damaging to a job search. Unemployed professionals too often have their career search obstructed by their own disempowering mindset.

In his presentation, Jason Hyde will explain 3 vital things unemployed professionals must understand to dissolve feelings of frustration and fear and replace them with courage, excitement and peace of mind.

Most unemployed professionals subconsciously believe that they will feel better on the inside when their external circumstances change. The truth is that the fastest way to achieve the external changes we want - a wonderful new career - is to make changes on the inside first.

Please join us on Zoom for an informative and interactive session with useful tips you can implement right away.

About our Presenter: Jason Hyde is a financial advisor, as well as the author of the book Career Fulfillment Found and a frequent speaker on the topic of career fulfillment. He uses personal experience and extensive knowledge in the areas of self-improvement and spirituality to help anyone who feels lost and overwhelmed with their career.

RSVP required: To receive a link to attend the Zoom session, RSVP by Monday April 7 to Gretchen Johnson at gbmjohson@gmail.com

The St. Catherine's Support Circle was formed in early 2009 to support people seeking jobs in the challenging economic environment. The group continues to encourage participation by both job seekers and those interested in providing their advice and support. To read about helpful information and recommended resources for job seekers, visit the parish web site www.stcath.org, then first link to Community Life, and then link to the SCSC page

If you have similar experience, and would be interested in joining your fellow professionals on the committee, please contact SCSC Chairman Bob Sloane at rsloane0@gmail.com

In memory of Jamie Benincasa

It is with great sadness that I share the passing of Jamie Benincasa: husband, father, Eucharistic Minister, Lector, parish trustee, and friend.

On the Sunday morning that I needed to announce the sale of the St. Agnes campus at all the Masses at St. Agnes, I prepared myself for expressions of anger and sadness from the parishioners. People were largely very respectful and polite. One, however, was very different - Jamie Benincasa. Jamie threw his arms around me, gave me a big hug, looked me straight in the eyes and said: "Father, you're a good guy. We will get through this together. Everything will be okay."

I cried tears of gratitude in my truck on the way back to the rectory. I cried thanking God for Jamie Benincasa and how he had just ministered to the depths of my soul. May he now rest in peace. Jamie, please pray for us.
