ALL SAINTS

Message from our Pastor

Your Reward Will Be Great in Heaven

I can't believe that it's already November! As yet another church year is coming to an end, we are reminded on this feast of All Saints, that there will come a time when our life on earth will come to an end. It's not something that most of us enjoy thinking about, but the Church thinks it's important to remind us that life in this world is not all there is- that our God has prepared far greater things for us in the life to come. And the Saints serve as a reminder of this.

The Saints that the church has recognized and canonized are easy to count, but there are far more, for all those in heaven are Saints (all are perfect in heaven). And so, the Saints include ordinary people, people like us- people like our parents and grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and friends and neighbors we've known.

Today in our Gospel we hear Jesus preach to us the Beatitudes. Perhaps we can think about which of the Beatitudes most appeals to us? Perhaps on this day we can choose one of the beatitudes and try to live it out in our lives. If we do, we will find that we are at the same time living out the others to some degree as well.

If we can live out in our lives the Beatitudes, there will be something wonderful waiting for us in the hereafter. For Jesus ends the Beatitudes with the words, "Be glad and rejoice, for your reward will be great in heaven."

God Loves you,

Fr. Dunn

Together in Faith

WEDNESDAY MORNING Bible Study

The Wednesday morning Bible Study will begin the study of the encyclical of Pope Leo XIV Magnifica Humanitas ON SAFEGUARDING THE HUMAN PERSON IN THE TIME OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE on Wednesday Nov.4th at 9:45 in the Lucey Parish Hall. We will use the study guide by Bill Huebsch, available on Amazon for $3.50.Open to all.

Fr. Dunn will be host another "Theology on Tap." If you've never been to one before, we encourage you to come! You'll have the opportunity to submit anonymous questions/concerns about our faith, Church, or any other Church/spiritual matters that you would like answers to or wish to hear some discussion on. It is our hope that through our discussion, we will find more peace in our troubled world and together grow in our knowledge and love of God and His Church. This will be an informal gathering, and food and drink will be served. Come and feed yourself and your faith! All are invited and encouraged to attend
