EASTER FAMILY PRAYER

Written by Lori Wilson

Amazing God,

Thank you for Easter Hope! This past year has been such a challenge, and it almost feels like the entire year was Lent, filled with sacrifice, isolation, and loss.

The resurrection of Jesus gives us a vision of Your love in our blessed and broken world. We realize we are not alone. You are with us each step of our journey, whether that journey includes sadness or joy.

Please bless our family and help us keep Your love, Your sacred heart at the center of our lives so we can be true beacons of hope to others, models of love in our families, and reflect You in all we do.

Amen

Managing Key Challenges for Job Seekers Over 50 Thursday, April 8, 2021 at 7:00 PM

Job seekers over age 50 face particularly difficult challenges. On April 8, we'll feature an informative discussion about ways to overcome these challenges. Our SCSC Chairman, Bob Sloane will lead an interactive session, sharing his perspectives about reasons for the over 50 age bias, how to overcome this bias, how to make your age an asset, and the best ways to shorten your search. If you are currently over 50, or approaching that threshold, join us to gain some helpful job seeking insights.

Click here \(www.stc-sta.org/community-life/st-catherine-s-support-circle\) for details on what you'll learn from this session and RSVP information.

~~~ In Memoriam ~~~

Deacon Vincent Heidenreich

Deacon Vincent J. Heidenreich of Greenwich passed away on Monday, March 22, 2021 at the age of 79.

"I first met Deacon Vince when I was a seminarian here in 1985. He was a kind and good man and very supportive of priestly ministry and the priests themselves. I will miss him." Fr. Bill Platt
Deacon Vince was ordained a deacon for the Diocese of Bridgeport in 1990 and since that time, had been assigned to the St. Catherine of Siena pastoral staff. He also served as the Property Manager for the parish.

Vince was born in Pittsburgh on June 15, 1943. His father was a general practitioner and his mother a nurse. He was the eldest of twelve—seven boys and five girls. He was educated in parochial schools, grade, high and at The Catholic University of America.

Deacon Vince spent 35 years in the pharmaceutical industry. One of his earlier promotions to pharmaceutical marketing management prompted the relocation of his family to Greenwich in July 1978, when he first joined St. Catherine of Siena Parish.

In 1983, he joined the healthcare division of BBDO on Madison Ave., supervising the development of prescription drug advertising. His last eleven years in the industry were as advertising head at Bayer Pharmaceutical. He retired from Bayer in November 2000.

Deacon Vince served as Director of Religious Education at Notre Dame Parish in Easton from 2001 - 2011. He was very involved in marriage preparation work for the Diocese and for the parish. Among the joys of his diaconal service, Deacon Heidenreich identified the privilege of presiding at the weddings of his son, Vincent, Jr., and his daughter, Beth, the baptizing of grandchildren and his many grandnieces and grandnephews in Pittsburgh.
